ABS Sheet & Mould

Haikou yulada trade co., ltd.

ABS Sheet & PP Mould

When it comes to ABS sheets and molds, they play a crucial role in various industries and applications.

Here's an introduction to ABS sheets and Mould.

ABS Sheet

ABS sheet commonly used in the construction of luggage. It's known for its durability, impact resistance, and lightweight properties, making it an ideal choice for protecting the contents of the luggage during travel. ABS sheets are also easy to clean and maintain, and they come in a variety of colors and finishes, providing a sleek and modern look for luggage design. Overall, ABS sheets help to make luggage more durable, functional, and stylish.

Imagine a material that's tough as nails but can also be shaped into almost any form you desire. That's ABS sheet for you! These sheets are versatile, lightweight, and have excellent impact resistance. They are commonly used because they are easy to cut, shape, and mold.

We have the best machines and experts to provide the best productions.

ABS Sheet & Mould

Luggage Mould

A mould for luggage is a crucial component in the manufacturing process, serving as a form or template to create the desired shape and design of the outer shell. Typically made of durable materials like metal or plastic, these molds are designed to fit specific dimensions and designs, ensuring consistency and accuracy in production. Whether used in injection molding for hard shell luggage or shaping and stitching for soft-sided luggage, these moulds are essential in creating the final product.

Our manufacturing process is top-notch, using the best injection machines, the best of the best Haitian, and ABS moulds supervised by our expert engineering team.

With over 30 years of experience, we can provide the best luggage parts and accessories for your projects. You can count on our durable and cost-effective ABS moulds, able to withstand high temperatures and ideal for mass production. Whether you need custom-shaped products or precision moulding, our dynamic duo of ABS sheets and moulds has got you covered.
